Five Reasons

TO TEACH AT PRINCE AVENUE CHRISTIAN SCHOOL:

PROFESSIONAL:

At Prince, your skills and expertise as an educator are valued and trusted.

- Your time is spent in the classroom and with students rather than on regulatory processes and procedures.
- Work alongside a highly qualified faculty where 63% have advanced degrees.
- Professional development is a priority.
- Prince provides the technology, tools, and training for an optimum teaching experience; Interactive Flat Panels are in every classroom.
- Discipline issues are minimal and handled appropriately by supportive administrators.

PRESTIGIOUS:

Teachers at Prince can take pride in working at a school that provides a college preparatory education while meeting the unique needs of our student population.

- Voted "Best Private School" in the Athens area four years in a row.
- Standardized test scores at all levels exceed all state and national averages.
- 80% UGA acceptance rate (five year average)
- Dual-accredited by the Southern Association of Independent Schools (SAIS) and Association of Christian Schools International (ACSI)
- Member of the Georgia High School Association (GHSA)
- Award-winning fine arts includes performing arts, band, and visual arts programs.
- Competitive and comprehensive athletics include multiple region and state championships.

PREPARED:

Prince leadership understands the importance of planning for the future.

- Prince is an established, mature school with student and teacher retention rates that exceed 95%.
- Prince has stable leadership fully engaged in strategic planning and development.
- Prince oversees controlled growth and intends to maintain its small student/teacher ratio.

PURPOSEFUL:

Prince Avenue is a covenant Christian school that carefully selects mission fit families who have agreed to partner with us in their child's Christian education.

- Enjoy Christian fellowship and common beliefs with co-workers.
- Teach your content area from a biblical perspective.
- Speak openly about your Christian faith and participate in community outreach.

PERSONAL:

Every teacher has personal and family needs when selecting a professional environment.

- Prince is located in desirable Oconee County, Georgia, where teachers and students feel safe and protected.
- Prince offers a robust benefits package that includes a healthcare premium 100% paid by the school as well as a retirement plan.
- Faculty and staff receive a significant tuition discount for their children.
