2024 Summer Reading for ENTERING 11TH AP ENGLISH LITERATURE AND COMPOSITION (AP LIT ONLY)

Assignment: Students will read two texts and complete assignments:

- Beowulf as translated by Seamus Heaney and complete an essay (instructions below)—due Friday, August 9, 2024 (first draft is ungraded; revised draft will be an essay grade)
- A book chosen from the list below and complete a PowerPoint (instructions below)
 - o The chosen book should be one you have never read before in order to best prepare you for the AP Lit test in the spring.
 - o Due Monday, August 12, 2024 (test grade)

AP Summer Reading/ Essay Assignment

Required: Beowulf, translated by Seamus Heaney

Essay: In a well-written 2-4 page essay (double spaced/MLA style) choose one of the following topics to respond to:

Option #1: In many works of fiction houses take on symbolic importance. Such houses may be literal houses or unconventional ones (e.g., hotels, monasteries, or boats). Using Beowulf, find a literal or unconventional house that serves as a significant symbol. Then, in a well-written essay, analyze how this house contributes to an interpretation of the work as a whole. Avoid mere plot summary.

Option #2: A symbol is an object, action, or event that represents something or that creates a range of associations beyond itself. In literary works a symbol can express an idea, clarify meaning, or enlarge literal meaning.

Focusing on one symbol you found in Beowulf, write an essay analyzing how that symbol functions in the work and what it reveals about the characters or theme of the work as a whole. Do not merely summarize the plot.

Option #3: It has often been said that what we value can be determined only by what we sacrifice.

Consider how this statement applies to a character from Beowulf. Select a character that has deliberately sacrificed, surrendered, or forfeited something in a way that highlights that character's values. Then write a well-organized essay in which you analyze how the particular sacrifice illuminates the character's values and provides a deeper understanding of the meaning of the work as a whole. Do not merely summarize the plot.

Requirements:

- Typed, double spaced, MLA format with in-text citations (no fewer than two per body paragraph) and a works cited page.
- Make sure you have a clear and specific thesis as the last sentence in the introductory paragraph. Your thesis should be a one-sentence answer to the prompt.

- Provide textural support (details, quotes, or summaries) in every body paragraph (at least two citations per paragraph)
- Essays must have at least five complete paragraphs
- Essays less than 2 pages in length will not be accepted
- You will turn in your first draft Friday, August 9, 2024, to Turnitin.com. You will have a chance to get feedback from your teacher and revise this essay before the final grade (which will be an essay grade).

AP Summer Reading PowerPoint Assignment

Parents: On this page, you will find a list of engaging and well-written stories that represent a variety of genres and time periods. While we endeavor to choose books that are representative of appropriate content, age level, and maturity, we recommend each family research the suggested selections on the Recommended Reading List. You may find sites such as www.squeakycleanreviews.com or www.thrivingfamily.com helpful as you discern the best publication for your student.

Ancient/Medieval:

The Iliad by Homer (Fagles translation)

The Aeneid by Virgil (Fagles translation)

Oedipus Rex by Sophocles (Fagles translation)

Antigone by Sophocles (Fagles translation)

Agamemnon by Aeschylus (Fagles translation)

The Inferno by Dante (Pinsky or Sayers translation)

The Quest of the Holy Grail (W.W. Comfort translation)

Le Morte D'Arthur by Sir Thomas Malory

The Prose Edda (Penguin Classics Edition of Norse myths)

The Viking Spirit: An Introduction to Norse Mythology and Religion by Daniel McCoy (Modern Version)

The Mabinogi and Other Medieval Welsh Tales translated by Patrick K. Ford

Renaissance/Enlightenment:

Don Quixote by Miguel de Cervantes (Penguin Classic Edition)

Othello by William Shakespeare

Macbeth by William Shakespeare

Henry IV, Part 1 by William Shakespeare

Henry IV, Part 2 by William Shakespeare

Henry V by William Shakespeare

A Midsummer Night's Dream by William Shakespeare

Twelfth Night by William Shakespeare

As You Like It by William Shakespeare

Dr. Faustus by Christopher Marlowe

St. George and the Dragon by Sarah Kous (Modern Version of Spenser's The Faerie Oueene)

Paradise Lost by John Milton

Gulliver's Travels by Johnathan Swift

Romantic/Victorian:

Ivanhoe Sir Walter Scott

Pride and Prejudice by Jane Austen Persuasion by Jane Austen Northanger Abbey by Jane Austen Emma by Jane Austen Mansfield Park by Jane Austen Jane Eyre by Charlotte Bronte Wuthering Heights by Emily Bronte Great Expectations by Charles Dickens A Tale of Two Cities by Charles Dickens Idulls of the King by Alfred, Lord Tennyson The Picture of Dorian Gray by Oscar Wilde The Man Who Was Thursday by G.K. Chesterton Dracula by Bram Stoker War of the Worlds by H.G. Wells Silas Marner by George Eliot Middlemarch by George Eliot

20th Century:

Pygmalion by George Bernard Shaw Heart of Darkness by Joseph Campbell The Dubliners by James Joyce The Wasteland by T.S. Eliot Murder in the Cathedral by T.S. Eliot The Once and Future King by T.H. White Brave New World by Aldous Huxley 1984 by George Orwell Rebecca by Daphne Du Maurier The Great Divorce by C.S. Lewis The Screwtape Letters by C.S. Lewis And Then There Were None by Agatha Christie To the Lighthouse by Virginia Woolf Howard's End by E.M. Forster Things Fall Apart by Chinua Achebe Lord of the Flies by William Golding

PowerPoint Assignment, continued

This assignment will be due on Monday, August 12th, 2024, electronically. This will count as a test grade.

In this process, there is to be NO collaboration with other students. Any assistance from the Internet, movies, or secondary sources such as Sparknotes, Cliff Notes, or Wikipedia will be viewed as cheating. If you have questions about format, email me at esadler@princeave.org.

Create a Microsoft PowerPoint for this assignment. Save it as "Summer Reading 2024_BOOKNAME."

This assignment will help you and your fellow classmates have a wider knowledge base of various literary texts and forms, as well as prepare you for the AP Lit test in the spring. For this assignment, you will create a slide deck on Microsoft PowerPoint that consists of 9-10 slides. Your slides will include:

- An intro slide that contains...
 - o An MLA header (your name, my name, AP Lit, and 12 August 2024)
 - o Your book name
 - o The author's name
 - o A picture of either the cover or the author
- A plot summary slide...
 - o A short summary of the book (no more than 10 sentences)
 - o This summary should include the ending! (spoilers are expected!)
- A "favorite quote" slide...
 - This slide should contain a quote (with the page number cited in MLA format) of a quote in the text that stood out to you. This quote can be longer than a single sentence, if needed.
 - This slide should also contain an explanation of why that quote was important to you or important to the text as a whole
- A protagonist slide...
 - o This slide should contain a picture of what you think the protagonist looks like
 - o This slide should also contain a quote from the protagonist that you think best sums up his/her primary motivation
 - o This slide should also contain a short explanation (3-5 sentences) of what the protagonist's goal is and why they wish to achieve that goal. Do they achieve it?
- An literary device slide...
 - o This slide should contain ONE literary technique/device you noticed in the text
 - o This slide should also contain an example of the device as its used in the text (if it's a longer one, like dramatic irony, you may summarize the section)
 - o This slide should also contain a citation of where in the text you found this device/technique used.
 - o Possibilities include (but are not limited to!): Alliteration, Onomatopoeia, Tone (specify what kind of tone), Allusion, Oxymoron, Paradox, Symbol, Foreshadowing, Personification, Plot (exposition, climax, resolution), Hyperbole, Point of view (1st, 3rd, limited, omniscient), Characterization (static, dynamic, flat, round) (direct, indirect), Imagery, Repetition, Irony (dramatic, verbal, situational), Metaphor, Satire, Simile, Dialect, Meter, Setting, Diction (specify what kind), Mood (specify what it is), Juxtaposition, etc.

• 2-3 Theme slides...

- One slide should be a short explanation (3-5 sentences) of one of the themes you picked up on in the text
 - Remember that a theme is the "main idea" of the text; it is NOT a moral or lesson the reader should learn
- o The remaining slide should contain two examples from the text that help support the theme along with a citation for each example you give (whether it's quoted or paraphrased, it should still be cited!)
 - If your examples are too long, and you cannot fit both of the examples on one slide, split them into two slides.
- A conclusion slide...
 - o Include a picture for visual interest
 - Tell who the "ideal audience" for this book is—who should read it? Who would most enjoy or get the most out of it?
 - HINT: Be more specific than "everyone." Is this book for people interested in French Revolutionary history? People who enjoy cozy mystery stories by the fireplace? etc.

- o What was the most interesting thing you learned from this book?
 - NOTE: What you "learned" does not have to be a moral! It can be a new writing style you picked up on, a historical fact or idea, or just a general point of interest.

• A Works Cited slide

- o Cite the book you read in MLA format
- o Cite the web page(s) for any pictures that you used in MLA format.

Important Notes about PowerPoints:

- Don't put too much info on a single slide. Avoid full sentences and stick to bullet points, where possible.
- Make sure the font is at least 14 point. Also make sure the color of the font and the color of the background contrast—blue font on a blue background won't show up!
- Keep it visually interesting! Plain white backgrounds with black text doesn't keep people's interest. While we won't be presenting these in any formal context, other people will be viewing them, so you want to make sure it's visually appealing!
- To cite pictures in MLA format, see here: MLA Works Cited: Other Common Sources Purdue OWL® Purdue University

Grading:

- A = Meaningful passages, plot and theme summary, protagonist/antagonist explanations, and quotation selections. Thoughtful interpretation and commentary about the text; avoids clichés. Includes comments about literary devices such as theme, narrative voice, point of view, imagery, conflict, symbols, etc., and how each contributes to the meaning of the text. Makes insightful personal connections and provokes thoughtful questions. Coverage of text is complete and thorough. Powerpoint is neat and visually appealing.
- B = Less detailed, but significant, meaningful plot and quote selections. Some intelligent commentary; addresses some thematic connections. Includes some ideas of the theme, but less on how the examples contribute to the meaning. Some personal connections; asks pertinent questions. Adequately addresses all parts of reading assignment. Powerpoint is neat, complete, and readable.
- C = Few significant details from the text. Most of the commentary is vague, unsupported, or plot summary/paraphrase. Some listing of theme and examples; virtually no discussion of meaning. Limited personal connections; asks obvious questions or makes obvious observations. Addresses most of the reading assignment, but is not very long or thorough. PowerPoint is relatively neat, but may be overly simple or difficult to read. Student did not follow all directions for organization; information is missing from some slides.
- F = Did not complete or plagiarized. Fewer than 9 slides in deck. No Works Cited slide or citations within slides.